It does seem like this winter will never end. The TYP 356NE schedule shows that, with the exception of the Board meeting on Tues 3/3 (all are welcome), Porsche activities are all in someplace warm. The Literature Meet is in Los Angeles (that sounds warm) the first weekend of the month and the second weekend has the Concours and auctions at Amelia Island in Florida (that sounds even warmer).

According to the pocket guide that I received from Gooding & Co., they are looking for more record prices at the Florida auctions on our Tubs. If you were going to park another 356 in your garage at a reasonable price, that ship has already sailed. Of course that means that the one already taking up space is worth a lot more so maybe a review of your insurance is in order. Some of the expected figures are:

'55 Cab - $275k - $350k

'57 Speedster - $250k - $325k

'59 A Coupe - $90k - $120K

'61 T5 Coupe - $120k - $150k

'63 B coupe - $90k - $120k

'65 C coupe - $130k - $160k

Keep in mind, part of the job of an auction house is to get top dollar for the goods. But these guys have been successful doing just that for the last few years. While the above numbers might make your eyes water, like we saw last month in Scottsdale, even some of those will be exceeded.

Make sure that your Tub is safely tucked away while the snow melts, you'll want to be ready to go when driving season arrives.

Keep the Faith! Tom Tate
